

Privacy Policy

This privacy statement explains what information Reveille Systems gathers from you through our website and how we may use it. If you have any questions, please contact our webmaster at info@reveillesystems.com.

The only individualized information that Reveille Systems obtains about you through our website is information you voluntarily supply. We will only use that information to fulfill the purpose for which it was supplied to us.

Reveille Systems may obtain non-individualized, generic information about your visit to our website through the use of cookies. Cookies are small pieces of data that are sent by a website to your web browser and are stored on your computer. Data derived from the cookies is aggregated and used by Reveille Systems for statistical tracking purposes. We use this information to understand general traffic patterns on our website and to gauge and improve the effectiveness of our website. The data is not used for individual identification and Reveille Systems in no way relates your personal information to these traffic pattern statistics.

If you are concerned about the use of cookies, you may configure your web browser to either request your specific acceptance of a cookie or disable cookies entirely. You will still be able to fully navigate our website if you choose to refuse or disable cookies.
